

11. Foreign debt can become a cause for concern if
- (a) global interest rates rise.
  - (b) the majority of the debt is the result of borrowing by the private sector.
  - (c) interest rates fall, causing the servicing costs of debt to change.
  - (d) the debt was used for infrastructure spending.