

22. Time lags slow down the economic management process. A recognition lag refers to the time taken to
- (a) identify that the economic data are changing.
  - (b) decide on an appropriate policy plan.
  - (c) affect the level of economic activity after a policy change.
  - (d) implement an appropriate counter-cyclical policy.